NEW YORK, Oct. 5 .- Once more the Balkans played hob, just for an hour or so, with the stock market. The frail and delicate "concert of Europe," despite the strengthening of its fibers by the grand work of King Edward, showed a disposition to shake and lose its pitch. London indicated the tone of the situation, and the weak opening and action of the stock market there was mmediately reflected in New York, but in lesser degree.

When stocks were opening points under Saturday's close, a New York tip-ster made this statement: "Stocks bought on this decline are certain to make profits, and in the course of this ession. There is no reason for the break, and they should be bought on on the declines the short sellers of he opening considered it wise to take mall profits, and supporting orders eleped to steady stocks and to turn the ist right-about for substantial recoveries. The foolishness of the break was parent, and the sellers tried to re-ver their stocks.

apparent, and the sellers tried to recover their stocks.

From abroad came reports to the effect that Great Britain, France, and Ruscia were to arbitrate on the Bulgarian-Turkish difficulties to the toning up of the "concert." At this time the market was practically back to the classing figures of Saturday night on all of the leading stocks and some of leaders, notably the Hill shares, were materially higher. Great Northern advancing The Street was full of rumors regarding the probable action of the directors of Northern Pacific at a meeting to be held tomorrow. It was expected that there would be a declaration of a dividend and the report had it that it would be 18 per cent cash.

On the down grade Union Pacific, Southern Pacific, St. Paul, Canadian Pacific, and Lead were the weaklings. Their recovery was complete, but they did not hold the full recovery, easing off a little when the buyers at the low figures of the day started taking profits. Even Northern Pacific and Great Morthern were off $\frac{3}{4}$ for the former and 15\frac{1}{4}$ ca the latter before the sharp advance in these stocks set in.

Just about the noon hour the market again started on the up-turn for a general advance throughout the list, this carrying Union and Southern Pacific, and Reading above the clossing of Saturday and carrying the Hill charse nearly a point higher than the specific and Great Morthern Pacific plants and Reading above the clossing of Saturday and carrying the Hill charse nearly a point higher than the specific and Great Morthern Pacific plants and Reading above the clossing of Saturday and carrying the Hill charse nearly a point higher than the specific and Great Morthern Pacific plants and Reading above the clossing of Saturday and carrying the Hill charse nearly a point higher than the specific and Great Morthern Pacific plants and Reading above the clossing of Saturday and carrying the Hill charse nearly a point higher than the specific and Great Morthern Pacific plants and Reading above the clossing of Saturday an
